

It would be wrong to put friendship before the truth. -Aristotle	Integrity is telling myself the truth. Honesty is telling the truth to other people. –Spencer Johnson	Honesty is the first chapter of the book of wisdom. -Thomas Jefferson	To be honest is to confront the truth, however unpleasant and inconvenient the truth may be. –Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.	An honest man is the noblest work of God. -Alexander Pope
To make your children capable of honesty is the beginning of education. -John Ruskin	No legacy is so rich as honesty. -William Shakespeare	The truth is always the strongest argument. -Sophocles	What is left when honor is lost? -Publilius Syrus	Rather than love, than money, than fame, give me truth. -Henry David Thoreau
If you tell the truth you don't have to remember anything. -Mark Twain	Where is there dignity unless there is honesty? -Cicero	The foundation stones for a balanced success are honesty, character, integrity, faith, love, and loyalty. -Zig Ziglar	Which is more important – to get straight A's in school or to be an honest person? Why?	Does it take more inner strength to lie or tell the truth? Explain.
Is cheating wrong? What if you could get away with it?	What does lying do to a relationship? Why?	Discuss the long-term effects of being dishonest.	Discuss the benefits of always being honest with others.	How do we feel about people who tell us the truth even when it may be difficult?
